

CITY FIREMEN WIN IN SALARY FIGHT

By a Vote of Four to Three Council Passes Ordinance to Increase Pay to $25 Per Month.

TWO BONDS ARE ACCEPTED.

Councilman Mills Introduced Ordinance to Prohibit Unnecessary Use of Exhausts on Automobiles.

Automobilists who enjoy to open the "cut out" on their machines to hear the exhaust "crack" will have to forego that pleasure within the city limits or lay themselves liable to a fine of five dollars if an ordinance passes which was introduced in the council last night by Councilman Mills. There have been some objections lately to running automobiles upon the streets with the "muffler" open and the ordinance is the result of this opposition.

The title and the provisions of the ordinance are as follows:

"An ordinance to prohibit the unnecessary operation of "mufflers" "Exhaust" and attachments to automobiles, motor cycles, electricity, steam or other similar power, and providing penalties for its violators. "Section 1—Be it ordained by the common council of Seymour, Indiana, that it shall be unlawful for any person or persons operating upon any street, alley or public place, in the city of Seymour, Indiana by gasoline, electricity, steam or other similar power, to at any time release or operate any attachment, and especially the attachment commonly known as a "muffler" or "exhaust," the release of which is unnecessary to start or stop such vehicle or to propel the same at a lawful speed in said city.

"Section 2.—Any person or persons convicted of the violation of the provisions of this ordinance shall be fined in any sum not less than five dollars nor more than ten dollars."

Section three provides for the publication of the ordinance.

All the members of the council were present and Mayor Swope presided. The ordinance which gives the city firemen an increased salary was passed after it was read for the third time. According to its terms, the firemen will hereafter, receive $660 per year of $55 a month which is an increase of $10 per month. The ordinance was introduced several weeks ago, and at the time of its first reading the rules were suspended and it was placed on second reading. At a subsequent meeting, however, it was shown that the rules were not suspended by a unanimous vote, and the ordinance was called on advance readings at the regular time. Three of the councilmen, Davison, Misch and Mills voted against the ordinance but the other members, Sherman Day, Hodapp, Tasker and W. R. Day were in favor of it. Several of the councilmen are of the opinion that the ordinance is not valid as the salaries were fixed for a period of four years and cannot be changed during that time. It seems that the validity of the ordinance depends upon the question whether or not the firemen are officers or employees of the city. In

GRASP HANDS FOR THE FIRST TIME

Until This Morning John Fahay of Seymour Had Never Met His Half Brother.

LATTER HERE A FEW HOURS.

Neither Man Knew of the Other's Existence.—A Strange and Interesting Story.

Patrick Hufley, of West Francesville, Ill., spent a few hours in Seymour this morning the guest of his half brother, John Fahay, of south Pine street.

Behind this simple statement is a strange and interesting story. It was the first time the two brothers had ever met and in fact until one month ago neither knew of the other's existence. Mr. Fahay's mother first married Patrick Hufley and they lived at Madison. He died before the Civil War and their child, Patrick Hufley, Jr. when three years old was given to relatives to care for.

In 1860 Mrs. Hufley married Col. John Fahay of Madison and John Fahay of this city was their son.

The relatives who took charge of young Hufley moved to a distant state and finally to Mexico. Eventually the mother lost all trace of them and of her child. She died 31 years ago without having seen the boy for sixteen years. He was five years old the last time she saw him.

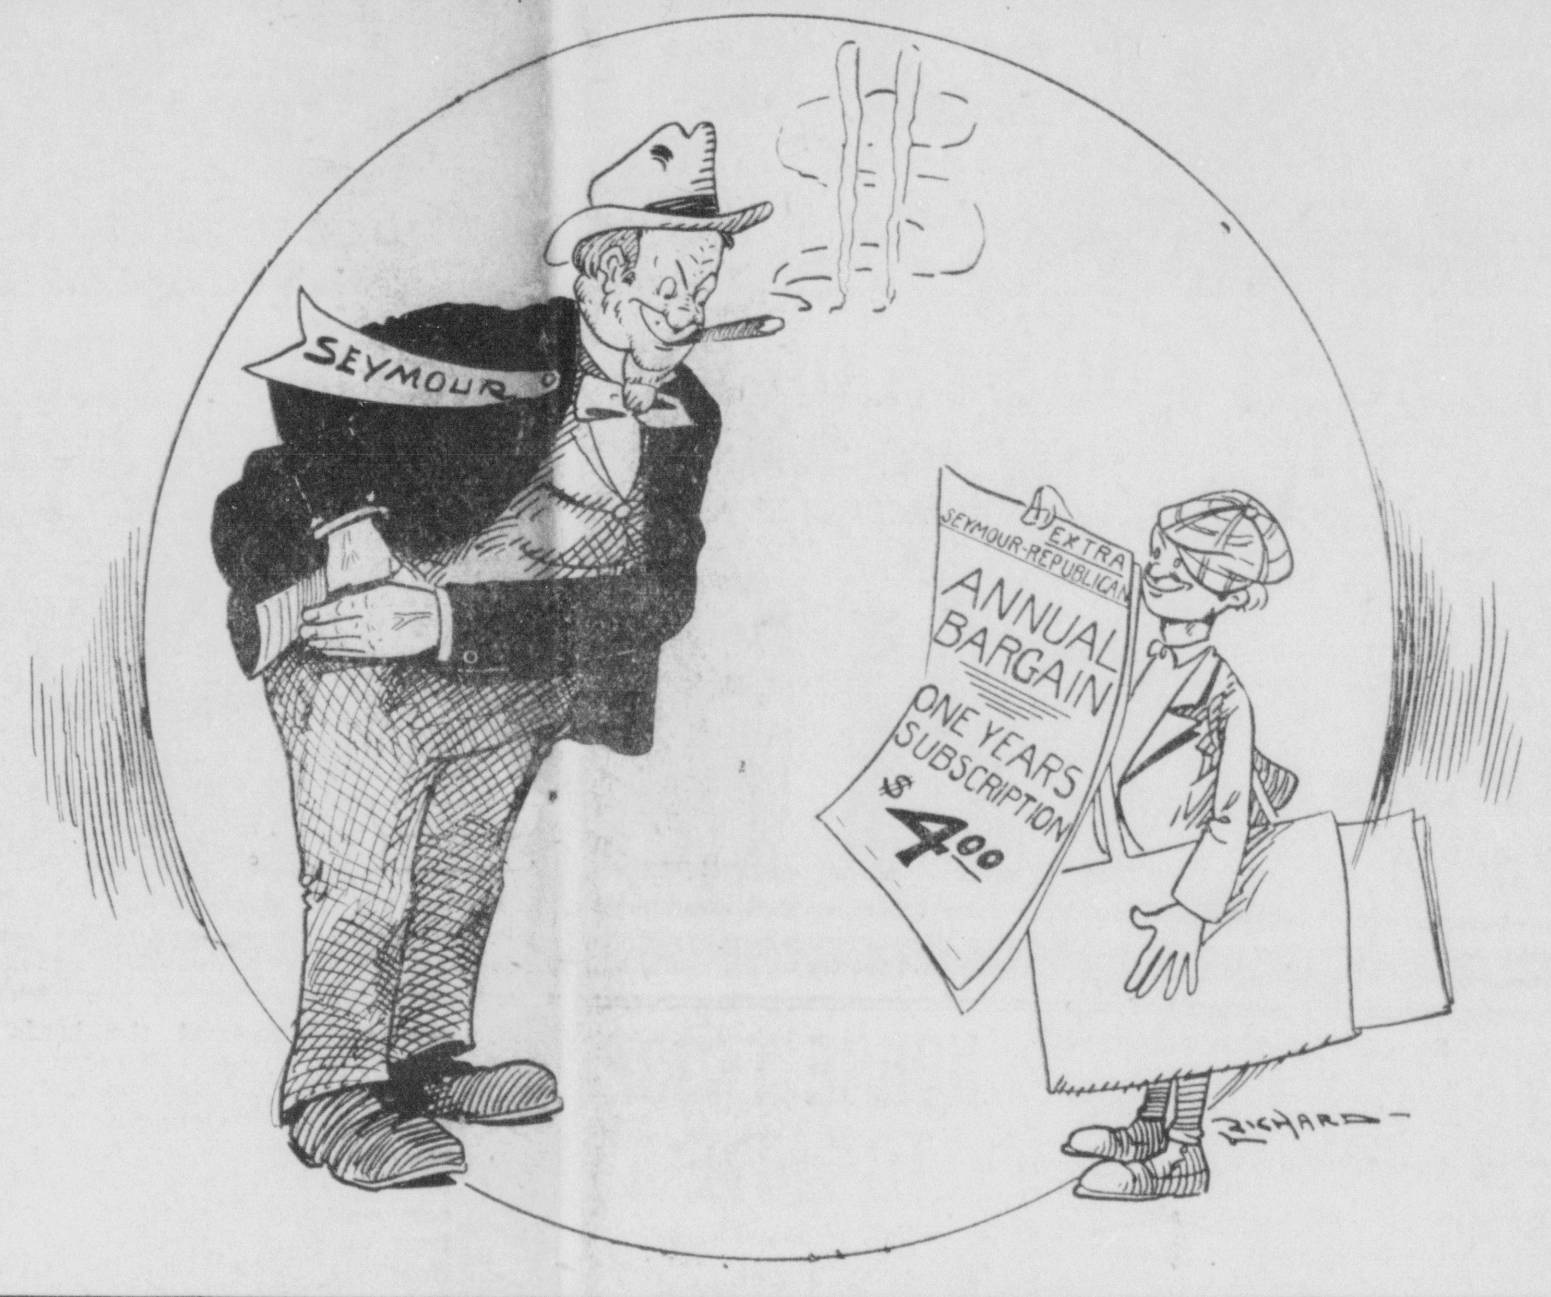

When he was eleven years of age he was set adrift in the world. The circumstances of his separation from his relatives are not distinct in his memory and he is uncertain whether he was deserted or drifted out of their care in some manner.

He went to sea at an early age and the greater part of his life was spent as a sailor. For years he was a sea captain and visited every part of the world. Five years ago he left the sea and for sometime has been the foreman of a Standard Oil pipe line construction gang and is now located in Illinois. During his wanderings he many times wondered if he had any relatives. The yearning for kin had grown so strong with him that some time ago he determined to find out if he had any relatives living. He knew that he was born at Madison and wrote to officials there. In response he received from the county clerk a copy of the license for his mother's second marriage. From the correspondence he also learned that he had sisters living in Madison and a half brother, John Fahay, in Seymour. He first visited the sisters and this morning came to Seymour and met Mr. Fahay. On account of his work his stay was very short but he expects to return in a week or so for a longer visit. The few hours the two men spent together this morning were greatly enjoyed by them and Mr. Fahay introduced his brother to many friends. Hufley is 32 years old and Fahay is 47.

Isaac Bridgewater Withdraws Action Against Calvert Bondsmen.

The trial of the case of Isaac A. Bridgewater vs Charles Calvert and bondsmen for $3,000, which has occupied the time of the court at Vernon came to a sudden ending this morning.

The case was dismissed on the motion of the plaintiff and at his expense. The evidence for the plaintiff was all in yesterday evening and two witnesses for the defense had been examined at the time court adjourned. Bridgewater claimed Calvert was indebted to him for materials, work and teams furnished in the building of gravel roads in Ripley county for which Calvert had the contracts several years ago.

REPORT GIVEN BY ENGINEER TRIPP

Says That He Finds Plant of Seymour Public Service Company in Good Condition.

IMPROVEMENTS BEING MADE.

Reports That New Construction Is First Class in Character and In Accordance With Franchise.

C. A. Tripp, consulting electrical engineer, who recently inspected the plant and system of the Seymour Public Service Company, has filed his report regarding the construction of the system. He says that it is in first class condition and that the new management is making every effort to carry out the terms of the franchise. The report as filed follows:

We beg to report as follows regarding our inspection on March 9th, of the Plant, Line Construction and Street Lighting System installed by the Seymour Public Service Corporation under the terms of their franchise.

We find that this plant is in good condition and equipped with duplicate apparatus providing reasonable security against interruption of service as provided in Section III.

An Erie City Water Tube Boiler of 250 H. P. capacity has been installed. This with the Heinze Boiler already in the plant gives a duplicate boiler equipment. A 150 H. P. Fitchburg Compound Engine has been installed and belted to a 100 K. W. General Electric Alternator. A 200 K. W. General Electric Alternator has been belted to the old Lane and Bodley Engine. At the present time, the smaller unit will carry the entire load without running at an unreasonable overload. We are advised, by the management of the Company, that it is their intention to install a third unit as soon as their load increases to any considerable extent.

New steam piping has been installed as well as new switchboard and all necessary regulating apparatus with the exception of three Graphic Recording Meters for the street lighting circuits as required under Section XXVII. These meters, however, are to be ordered at once.

All of the new construction is first class in its character and thoroughly in accordance with the franchise. There are still some of the old poles which will have to be replaced and also some work in putting insulators in guy anchors, tightening guys etc. This work, however, is being done as rapidly as possible and we believe that the company is making every effort to put all the construction in first class condition.

We find that all the lights have been installed in accordance with the Plat with the exception of four 50 watt lamps located as follows:

On Blish Street at the alley intersection between Third and Fourth street.

On Blish street at the alley intersection between Sixth and Seventh.

On Blish street at the alley intersection between Fifth and Sixth.

On Seventh street at the alley in-

DEFEAT THROUGH DRUNKENNESS. 1 Kings 20: 12-21.

GOLDEN TEXT:—It is not for kings to drink wine; nor for princes strong drink. Prov. 31:4.

When godly people seek the help of and rely on the ungodly it is not only a testimony against God on the part of those who bear His name, but it encourages the ungodly in their ungodliness. In II Chron. xvi we read that Asa, king of Judah, was rebuked by the Lord through Hanani the seer because he relied upon Benhadad, king of Syria.

It may have been that this fellowship of Asa with him afterward encouraged Benhadad to ill treat Ahab, king of Israel, as he did, first demanding of him his silver and his gold and his wives and children and then threatening to send his servants to search the houses of the king and his servants and take away all their desirable things (verses 5, 6). Ahab seems to have borne the first demand with wondrous submission, but the second was too much, and Ahab by the advice of his elders so returned answer to Benhadad. This drew from him a great threat, to which Ahab replied in these words: "Let not him that girdeth on his harness boast himself as he that putteth it off" (verse 11).

We cannot but be impressed with the pains which God takes to win people to Him and to deliver them from the wrath to come, and we are amazed to see Him working even on behalf of such a one as Ahab. But it was all for His great namesake that Ahab might know Him as Jehovah (verses 13, 28). Compare Job xxxiii, 27-30, and remember always II Pet. iii, 9. What He has done for them in the past and will yet do for them in the future was and will be wholly for His name's sake that He may be known and trusted (Ezek. xxxi, 22; xxxvii, 28; xxxviii, 23; xxxix, 27-29). Even this day He is wont to show Himself strong on behalf of very unworthy representatives if only He may be known through them as the living and true God, who loves to save and is not willing that any should perish.

The great hindrance to His saving and blessing people and showing Himself strong on their behalf is their unwillingness and unbelief. How often He has had to say, "And ye would not" (Isa. xxviii, 12; xxx, 15; Matt. xxiii, 37; John v, 40). "My people would not hearken to My voice, and Israel would none of Me." "They believed not in God and trusted not in His salvation" (Isa. xxxi, 11; lxxviii, 22).

Ahab's record is, "There was none like unto Ahab, who did sell himself to work wickedness in the sight of the Lord" (chapters xxi, xxv). The only good thing written of him is his penitence.

which caused the Lord to delay judgment on him (xxi, 27-29). And yet in this lesson the Lord gave the Syrians into his hand twice, though his people were but few and the Syrians a great host. He even caused a wall to fall upon 27,000 of the Syrians. Such a manifestation of the power of God on behalf of such as Ahab is most unusual. We must think not of Ahab, but of Israel as the people of God, though in rebellion against Him, concerning whom He said: "How shall I give thee up, Ephraim? How shall I deliver thee, Israel?" (Hos. xi, 8) "O Israel, thou hast destroyed thyself, but in me is thine help." "O Israel, return unto the Lord thy God!"

As to the Syrians, who were at this time overthrown, it is plain that drunkenness was one of the sins of their leaders, for Benhadad and his thirty-two royal comrades were drinking themselves drunken (verses xii, 16) even while they were boasting against the God of Israel. It was not sinful Israel that they were talking against, but the wonder working God of Israel, who counts all that is done to His people, however unworthy they may be, as done to Himself (Zech. ii, 8). After the first defeat of the Syrians they said that the God of Israel was a God of the hills, but not of the valleys, and for this they suffered their second defeat, though the children of Israel were like two little flocks of kids, while the Syrians filled the country (verses 23, 27). The Lord loves to show Himself strong on behalf of all who trust in Him (II Chron. xvi, 9).

But proud, haughty, self sufficient people will always be overthrown. There is nothing that develops the self in man like wine or strong drink, and self or the carnal mind is that part of us that is incorrigibly bad and can never be improved (Rom. viii, 7). As to the way in which wine or strong drink works—and some instances of it in the Scriptures—the cases of Noah, David and Uriah, Nabab, Elah and others might be studied with profit (Gen. ix, 20, 21; II Sam. xi, 13; I Sam. xxv, 36; I Kings xvi, 9). The record stands that drunkards shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

And even such guilty ones have been and may still be saved. Then there is that staggering and drunkenness of unbelief always to be considered in which neither wine nor strong drink is at all in evidence (Isa. xxxix, 9-13). Sinners of all grades and kinds are all about us, whom God is ready to save, and we do well to consider whether while we are busy here and there they get beyond our reach.

HORSE TROOPS TO MOVE SOUTH

Ninth and Eleventh Cavalry
Awaiting Orders.

RECRUITED TO WAR STRENGTH

This Is One of the Interesting Developments of the Big War Game Now Being Played on the Southern Border—Failure of Rebels to Follow Out Their Intent to Attack Town of Diaz Causes Speculation.

San Antonio, March 17.—The attack upon the town of Diaz, just across from Eagle Pass, scheduled to occur yesterday, and which was to mark the opening of a new insurrecto campaign in Coahuila, did not take place. There has been a reaffirmation from a staff officer of the camp of the report printed some days ago that the Ninth and Eleventh cavalry regiments were soon to move in the direction of the border. It may be stated with positiveness that as soon as the large number of recruits for the two cavalry regiments which have arrived within the last two days in numbers sufficient to bring these two organizations up to war strength has been licked into passable shape, the two regiments will move south to Ft. Clark, near Spofford Junction, thirty miles away from the Mexican border.

Fighting For One Thing Only.

A telephone message from an American in the town of Diaz conveyed the news that though March 16 had been the day set by the insurrectos for an uprising in that city, no untoward signs had appeared and the small guard of federal troops was exercising unusual diligence to prevent against surprise. So far the lines of the National Railways of Mexico running through this border town to Torreon in the southwest of Coahuila have not been tampered with, though the officials of those lines here in San Antonio have been notified that interruption of traffic by the blowing up of bridges may be expected any minute.

Alfonso Madero, the brother of the insurrecto leader and the head of the local revolutionary junta in San Antonio, said that the news that Jose Limantour was leaving New York bound for Mexico City with the purpose of making overtures to the insurrectos would not, he thought, have any effect upon the movements of the rebels. Senor Madero seemed to take a pessimistic view of the influence that Limantour could bring to bear toward effecting a compromise. The insurrectos, he said, were fighting for one thing only—the removal of Diaz from power and the stamping out of the Diaz regime. They would be satisfied with nothing short of that.

Rebels Have Many Recruits.

That the revolutionary movement is spreading to new territory was confirmed by an officer of the Southern Pacific who has just returned from Torreon. He said that throughout all of southern Chihuahua and in the state of Coahuila whenever a federal force approached within striking distance of the insurrectos, fully one-third of Diaz's soldiers deserted their companies and took their guns over to the rebels. The federal government in Coahuila was weakening, he added, and when the signal for a general uprising came there would be an almost unanimous response.

An American mining engineer who has interests in the state of Sonora, who as a technical prisoner of the insurrectos, witnessed the battle at Agua Prieta, across the line from Douglas, Ariz., a week ago, arrived in San Antonio. Commenting upon the spread of the insurrection in Sonora, he said that though he had read in the commission held by General Blanco from Francisco Madero strict instructions not to damage any property belonging to Americans in Mexico, he did not believe that American property could continue to be immune for long. The insurrectos were commandeering all the foodstuffs in the territory in which they were operating, he said, and already there was a marked shortage of provisions for the neutral citizens in the affected zone. It was inevitable, he thought, that before long the peons would be forced to plunder the commissariates of the American Mining companies throughout Sonora, driven to do so by sheer starvation.

tersection between Walnut and Poplar.

We find that two additional 50 watt lamps have been installed, one on Ninth street at the Pennsylvania Crossing and one on Poplar street between Sixth and Seventh. This leaves a net shortage of two lights.

We recommend that the two lights on Blish street which have been omitted be installed and that the lights on Ninth street and Poplar streets be accepted as substitutes for the two lights omitted on Bill street and Seventh street. We believe that the light on Bill street is not needed and that slight rearrangement of the lights on Ninth street near Walnut will do away with the necessity of the light originally specified at the alley intersection.

The lamps are not very well lined up and a considerable number are not hanging with the shades level. The management of the company, however, advise us that this is due to the hurried work which was necessary in order to have the lights in operation within the time allowed by the franchise and that these defects will be taken care of promptly.

We have looked over the changes in location of lights which have been suggested and believe that the carrying out of these will improve the system.

Respectfully Submitted,
McMeans and Tripp.

Thousand Delegates Expected.

Columbus, Ind., March 17.—The committee in charge of the local arrangements for the state convention of Christian churches expects to have members of the local congregations entertain all the visitors. The convention will be held here May 15, 16 and 17. Over nine hundred churches are entitled to representation, and nearly 1,000 delegates are expected.

Alleges Discrimination.

Washington, March 17.—One hundred railroads are made defendants in a complaint filed with the interstate commerce commission by the Alpha Cement company of Manheim, W. Va. This concern alleges discriminations against it by the carriers in favor of the Universal Cement company, a subsidiary company of the United States Steel corporation.

To Do Away With Concealed Weapons.

Springfield, Ill., March 17.—The Isley anti-firearm measure passed the senate by a 36 to 0 vote. It provides a $500 fine or two years' imprisonment or both, against any person carrying a concealed weapon.

CITY FIREMEN WIN IN SALARY FIGHT.

increasing their salaries the majority of the council took the latter view.

Upon the motion of W. R. Day, James Horning was given the privilege of tapping the Pine street sewer.

T. A. Young, a representative of the Standard Oil Company was introduced to the council, and he told the members of the merits of oil on the streets. He said that first class Standard oil could be furnished at 3½ cents per gallon and that it required one-half of a gallon to cover a square yard properly. After hearing his recommendation he was informed that the city would have no need for oil at the present time. He then presented two samples of asphalt binder for use on macadam streets and explained the advantages.

The bond of the Seymour Public Service Company for $10,000 for faithful performance of contract to furnish lights according to their agreement was accepted. The city attorney, E. P. Elser reported that the indemnifying bond signed by Maryland Surety Company was sound and it was also accepted.

The report of C. E. Tripp, consulting electrical engineer was read.

A communication from General Manager A. L. Shane, of the Indianapolis, Columbus and Southern Traction Company regarding the request of the city that the road place a light in front of their barns on east Second street was read. He said that every precaution was being taken to prevent accidents, but he did not believe that an additional light was needed as the company kept the front of the interurban station well lighted. No action was taken on the communication, as the councilmen were of the opinion that the company would be willing to give the matter the proper attention when they considered it necessary.

In answer to the letter of the city clerk that the crossing bell at Seventh street was out of repair, William F. Peter, general attorney for the Southeastern Line, wrote that the bell was reported in good repair, but upon investigation it was found that a small piece of wood had been placed between the bell and the hammer which prevented it from ringing, and that the road foremen had frequently found the bell so plugged. He stated that an effort would be made to protect the bell from persons who tampered with it.

An invitation from C. B. Billings, a member of the hospital board, was read inviting the council and Mayor to attend the dedication at the new hospital on next Thursday. The invitation was accepted upon the motion of Mills.

A petition asking for an electric light at the corner of Booth and Ninth streets was read and referred to the board of public safety.

Councilman Mills stated that Superintendent Hagerty of the B. & O. S-W, had asked if the city would arrange to put the rear of the lot back of the city building in better condition. The lawn at the rear of the division office building will be beautified and the unsightly appearance of the lot belonging to the city would injure the appearance of that lot. A committee composed of Councilmen Mills, Sherman Day and Misch was appointed to investigate and ascertain what could be done.

City Engineer E. B. Douglass reported that he had found that the sewer in the Read-Jordan addition was in a bad condition, and that in several places it was below the level of the outlet. The matter was referred to the board of public works.

Council Davison reported that the committee preparing the specifications for the street improvement would be ready to submit its specifications next Thursday, and upon his motion the council will meet in special session at that time to discuss them. Bids will also be considered at that time for the renting of the five acres of land owned by the city in the East Side Park.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a brick dust sediment, or settling, stringy or milky appearance often indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back are also symptoms that tell you the kidneys and bladder are out of order and need attention.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills almost every wish in correcting rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. Corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest because of its remarkable health restoring properties. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Mention this paper and remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

STRIKERS KILL MORE FIREMEN

Veritable Reign of Terror In Kentucky Mountains.

SHARPSHOOTERS ARE AT WORK

All Freight Trains on Disturbed Division of the Queen & Crescent Have Been Annulled and the Colored Firemen on the Passenger Trains Pass Through the Mountains in Constant Peril of Their Lives.

Somerset, Ky., March 17.—Trouble has broken out again at Glen Mary and three men are reported shot. Two of the wounded are white and one of them was from Cincinnati.

At Kings Mountain one fireman was shot dead, another seriously wounded, and a guard who was in the cab on duty was seriously wounded. The strike leaders refuse to discuss the question only to say that they intend stopping traffic on this division unless a settlement is reached. The road officials claim that the reports which are made by passengers arriving here are overdrawn and that only a few have been killed or injured since the strike began.

Additional guards are being hired by the railroad to patrol their property, but on account of the high hills along the Queen & Crescent right-of-way, a small number of men cannot protect the trains as they pass. As fuel is exhausted, many of the big firms along the line have shut down and several hundred are out of employment. Freight traffic is still tied up and no freight trains have passed over this division since the beginning of the trouble.

TEXT BOOK BILL

Killed by Arguments of the Catholics and Lutherans.

Springfield, Ill., March 17.—Representative Covey's free text book bill was killed at a meeting of the house educational committee, when it was tabled.

There were only two votes in favor of the bill. One was cast by Mr. Covey, who fathered the measure. Representative Gorman of Peoria voted with him because he desired the bill to be referred to the people for settlement.

The measure was opposed by representatives of the Catholic and Lutheran churches, who declared that it was unfair to force parents sending children to parochial schools to pay taxes for books to be used by other children in the public schools.

Representatives of several labor organizations appeared before the committee in favor of free text books, but they were unable to breast the storm of arguments presented by the church people.

MAKES THEM GRIN

Soldiers Gossiping About Nature of Certain Supplies.

El Paso, March 17.—There is considerable border gossip here as a result of the nature of the supplies being sent to American troops. The commissary officer at Galveston has just been ordered to buy a big supply of hard tack, the troops at San Diego have been supplied with mosquito bars, and the troops at San Antonio have received pontoon bridges.

There is no necessity for hard tack except in the field; mosquitoes are unknown in California, and there are no rivers in Texas big enough for the use of pontoon bridges.

Dynamiters at Milwaukee.

Milwaukee, March 17.—A coal hoist just completed by Heyl-Patterson of Pittsburg was dynamited last night and two policemen badly if not fatally hurt by a second explosion while investigating. Loss, $150,000. The steamer Stuart was damaged to the extent of $10,000 by the explosion. The dynamiting is alleged to be due to labor troubles encountered by the contractors.

Youthful Horse Thief Convicted.

Kewanee, Ill., March 17.—Roy Howes, aged nineteen, pleaded guilty to stealing horses here and at Geneseo and was sentenced to the reformatory for a term from three to fifteen years.

IT GROWS HAIR.

Here Are Facts We Want You to Prove at Our Risk.

Marvelous as it may seem, Rexall "93" Hair Tonic has grown hair on heads that were once bald. Of course in none of these cases were the hair roots dead, nor had the scalp taken on a glazed, shiny appearance.

Rexall "93" Hair Tonic acts scientifically, destroying the germs which are usually responsible for baldness. It penetrates to the roots of the hair, stimulating and nourishing them. It is a most pleasant toilet necessity, is delicately perfumed, and will not gum or permanently stain the hair.

We want you to get a bottle of Rexall "93" Hair Tonic and use it as directed. If it does not relieve scalp irritation, remove dandruff, prevent the hair from falling out and promote an increased growth of hair, and in every way give entire satisfaction, simply come back and tell us, and without question or formality we will hand back to you every penny you paid us for it. Two sizes, 50c, and $1.00. Sold only at our store.—The Rexall Store, The Andrews-Schwenk Drug Co.

ACTED TOO HASTILY

And Now Logansport Merchant Faces Heavy Suit For Damages.

Logansport, Ind., March 17.—Bruno F. Heilman of Wabash and Louis Bottingheimer of Anderson have filed separate suits against I. N. Crawford, hardware dealer, in the circuit court, each demanding $2,500 damages for malicious prosecution. Crawford, on Feb. 12, caused their arrest on a traction car at Tipton and their return to Logansport on a charge of larceny. He believed them to be men who several days previously had rented shotguns of him and failed to return. The case never came to trial, as Crawford became convinced of his mistake and dismissed the actions. The plaintiffs in the action just filed are prominent business men.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from ten drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. Cheney & Co. Good Work of Bucket Brigade.

Indianapolis, March 17.—Old Augusta, a village of 500 people, six miles north of Indianapolis, was threatened with destruction by a fire that destroyed three buildings in which were three homes and a grocery store. The town saved itself when the larger part of the population turned out, organized bucket brigades, in which men, women and children were units, and fought the flames for three hours. The effort of the people made the loss less than $5,000.

NOTHING WRONG ABOUT REBATES

In Certain Cases, Says the Appellate Court.

AS TO MORALS OF THE CASE

Contract to Pay a Rebate on Condition of Continued Trade Contains Nothing Legally or Morally Wrong, According to a Decision Handed Down by the Indiana Appellate Court in an Indianapolis Case.

Indianapolis, March 17.—In the case of Bessire & Co. vs. the Corn Products company, appealed from the Marion superior court, the appellate court declares there is nothing legally or morally wrong in a contract to pay a rebate on the condition of continued trade.

The Corn Products company sued for the price of goods delivered, and the Bessire company defended that the Corn Products company was a trust, and that it had agreed to give certain rebates to the Bessire company. The appellate court holds that the answer showed no illegal combination in restraint of trade, and that the defendant could not claim the benefit of the rebate, because it had not continued in the trade relation the time required to be entitled to it. Nor was the fact that there was an agreement for a rebate for continued trade anything which would make the contract void or to prevent the Corn Products company from recovering the price of the goods sold.

MUST BELIEVE IT.

When Well Known Seymour People Tell It So Plainly.

When public endorsement is made by a representative citizen of Seymour the proof is positive. You must believe it. Read this testimony. Every backache sufferer, every man, woman or child with any kidney trouble will find profit in the reading.

Mrs. Sheridan Burge, Third and Blish streets, Seymour, Ind., says: "I am enjoying excellent health at the present time, thanks to Doan's Kidney Pills. I was so miserable that I about gave up all hope of ever being well. The pains in my back almost drove me frantic and I could not do much work. The kidney secretions were unnatural and I lost in weight until I was but a mere shadow of my former self. I doctored faithfully and tried remedies of various kinds, but not until I took Doan's Kidney Pills, did I get permanent relief."

Surrendered at Muzzle of Gun.

Worthington, Ind., March 17.—Charles Pike, escaped convict from the Indiana state prison, was captured five miles north of town by Thomas W. Larmore of Michigan City, assisted by Sheriff Branstetter and Deputy Sheriff Inman of Bloomfield. Pike surrendered at the muzzle of a Winchester in the hands of Larmore. The prisoner escaped Jan. 1 last. He was sentenced from Marion county in September, 1909, for attempted murder.

Forced to Leave Home.

Every year a large number of poor sufferers, whose lungs are sore and racked with coughs, are urged to go to another climate. But this is costly and not always sure. There's a better way. Let Dr. King's New Discovery cure you at home. "It cured me of lung trouble," writes W. R. Nelson, of Calamine, Ark., "when all else failed and I gained 47 pounds in weight. Its surely the king of all cough and lung cures." Thousands owe their lives and health to it. It's positively guaranteed for Coughs, Colds, Lagrippe, Asthma, Croup—all Throat and Lung troubles. 50c, and $1. Trial bottle free at the Andrews-Schwenk Drug Co.

Seven Saloons Raided.

Lafayette, Ind., March 17.—Deputy United States Marshal David Rankin and United States Attorney Clarence W. Nichols of Indianapolis made a raid on Lafayette saloon keepers and arrested seven for violations of the government excise laws.

She Wouldn't Pay Dog Tax.

Jeffersonville, Ind., March 17.—Rather than pay a dog tax of $1, Mrs. Catherine Shilling of Sellersburg is "laying out" a fine which, with costs, amounts to $11, by spending eleven days in the county jail.

GOV. DONAGHEY

Arkansas Executive Wouldn't Stand For Pictures of Fight.

Little Rock, Ark., March 17.—Governor Donaghey personally stopped an exhibition of the Jeffries-Johnson fight pictures. He notified the manager and visitors that unless the show was closed at once he would order the arrest of all in the building. The manager obeyed.

HE WILL FIGHT THE CHARGE OF BRIBERY

Gary Councilman Says He's a Victim of "Frameup."

Gary, Ind., March 17.—A resolution passed by the Gary Commercial club authorizes that organization to assist in the investigation and prosecution of Walter Gibson, a councilman, who is alleged to have accepted $20 in money (not $2,000, as was erroneously stated) from Lee Noviski, a junk dealer, for the passage of a certain ordinance. A special committee was appointed to raise funds to engage legal aid for the prosecution of the case.

Alderman Gibson says he does not fear arrest; that he is innocent of the charge, and that the whole story is a "frame-up" on the part of Mayor Knotts and other persons so as to hold a club over his head on account of his activities in working against certain pet measures of the mayor. Mr. Gibson has obtained the services of an attorney and says he will fight the case to the last ditch.

NINE INDICTMENTS

Have Been Returned in Alleged Alaska Coal Fraud Cases.

Chicago, March 17.—Indictments have been returned against nine men in connection with the Alaska coal land frauds by the federal grand jury. The men are: A. C. Frost, Chicago capitalist; G. M. Seward, receiver of the Frost estate; Pierre Beach, secretary of the Alaska Central railroad, Chicago; Frank Watso, Seattle, Wash.; George A. Ball, Muncie, Ind.; Duncan M. Stewart, Seward, Alaska; Henry C. Osborne, Gwynn L. Francis and Francis H. Stewart, Toronto. The land involved is said to be valued at $10,000,000.

Will Pour Booze Into River.

Middletown, N. Y., March 17.—There is a mixed drink jug in store for Hudson river shad on Saturday, when 2,500 bottles of beer, three barrels of wine and a large quantity of whisky and gin will be turned into the river. The liquors were seized at Cornwall when raids were made upon four "speakeasies."

Rheumatism Comes From Bad Kidneys

Once Your Kidneys Work Properly, Rheumatism, Kidney Disease and Bladder Trouble Disappear. How To Cure Yourself.

It is no longer necessary to spend months and months undergoing a complicated treatment for rheumatism, kidney or bladder trouble, or spend a good many dollars in doctors' bills. A new treatment can now be obtained which seems to act more like a marvel than a medicine. This treatment has produced such satisfactory results in a short time that it is now guaranteed from first to last.

There should be no more doubt about the rapid cure of rheumatism, no fears of the fatal termination of treacherous kidney disease or dropsy.

Rheumatism means nothing more nor less than that your kidneys do not work properly. Your blood passes through the kidneys hundreds of times a day to be filtered and purified. When the kidneys are weak, the poisons are not taken out of the blood as they should be. This leads to various diseases, such as rheumatism, terrible Bright's disease, diabetes, dropsy and bladder trouble.

The new guaranteed treatment is Dr. Derby's Kidney Pills. One day's use of them will prove their remarkable effect. M. T. Ridenour of Lima, Ohio, says: "When I feel bad in my back, I just take a couple of Derby's Kidney Pills and get immediate relief."

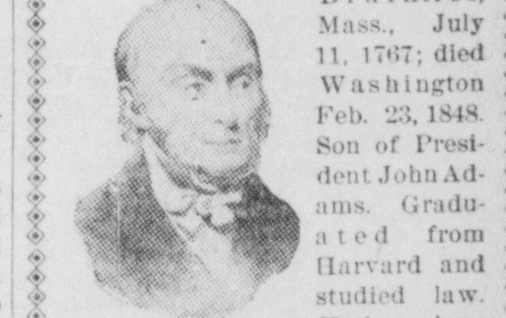

If you have rheumatism anywhere, back pains, cloudy, foul urine, pains in the bladder, Bright's disease or diabetes, put your whole confidence in Dr. Derby's Kidney Pills, and you will not be disappointed.

Dr. Derby's Kidney Pills are sold at all drug stores—25 and 50 cents, or we will send them direct from the laboratory of Derby Medicine Co., Eaton Rapids, Mich., prepaid, if you wish. If you want to try them first, just tell your druggist to give you a free sample package.

THE HALL OF FAME.

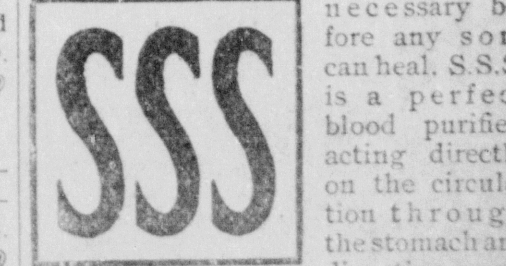

JOHN QUINCY ADAMS—Sixth president of the United States. Born Braintree, Mass., July 11, 1767; died Washington Feb. 23, 1848. Son of President John Adams. Graduated from Harvard and studied law.

Had a long and distinguished diplomatic career, serving as minister to The Hague, minister to Prussia, commissioner to negotiate the treaty of Ghent, minister to Russia, minister to England and finally eight years under Monroe secretary of state. In 1824 elected president, but four years later was defeated by Jackson. He then was elected a member of the house of representatives, in which he served until death.

OLD SORES DUE TO DISEASED BLOOD

Every symptom of an old sore suggests diseased blood. The inflammation, discharge, discolored flesh, and the fact that local applications have no permanent effect toward healing the ulcer, shows that deep down in the system there is a morbid cause for the sore. But more convincing proof that bad blood is the cause for these places is furnished by the fact that even removing the sore or ulcer by surgical operation does not cure; they always return. Nature will heal any sore if the blood is pure and healthy, but until the circulation is cleansed of all impure matter and supplied with nourishing and plasmonic qualities the infected condition of flesh is OBLIGED to remain. S.S.S. heals Old Sores in a perfectly natural way. It goes into the blood, removes the impurities and morbid matters, adds nourishing qualities to this vital fluid, and brings about the very conditions that are necessary before any sore can heal. S.S.S. is a perfect blood purifier, acting directly on the circulation through the stomach and digestive members. Its use makes rich, red, healthy blood, which nourishes all flesh tissues instead of infecting them with the virulent matter which keep old sores open. Special book on Old Sores and any medical advice free.

RICHART

HEATERS FOR THE ORCHARD

Victor N. Fettig is Experimenting
With Something New in that Line This Season.

PURCHASES FIFTEEN OF THEM.

These Heaters Are Used Extensively
In the West.—Are New in This Section.

Victor Fettig has a nice orchard at his home on West Sixth street and he is not keeping it simply for park purposes. He does not propose that the San Jose Scale and caprices of the weather man shall deprive him of his fruit crop. He is spraying the trees as protection against the scale and he is now prepared for any kind of weather.

He has just received a shipment of fifteen patent heaters for use in the orchard. They are it is believed, the first to be brought to Jackson county but it is probable that within a year or two these heaters will come into general use among the fruit growers of this section. At this time of the year and a little later when the buds are beginning to come out and open on the trees these heaters are of inestimable value in orchards on cold days and nights and can prove the salvation of a crop.

The heaters which Mr. Fettig has purchased came from Colorado and are simple affairs. They are made of sheet iron, are about eleven inches high, nine inches in diameter and cylindrical in shape. Through the center is an air shaft. For use the cylinder is filled with oil, gas oil being considered the best and a little straw is sprinkled over the oil. The heaters are placed in the orchard, the lids removed and the straw and oil set on fire. Each heater holds about seven quarts of oil and this quantity will burn about ten hours.

Mr. Fettig has less than half an acre of orchard with 80 trees. Some of them are too young to bear. He does not know yet exactly the number of heaters necessary but will experiment with the 15.

The oil costs about six cents a gallon and if by using the heaters a few nights during the spring he can save his fruit crop, the small outlay for oil being money well expended. There might be but two or three nights when the heaters would be necessary but when they are needed they are needed badly.

In the big fruit orchards in Colorado and other parts of the west these heaters are beginning to be used extensively. The government has issued a circular relating to their use and the experts figure that from 40 to 100 heaters are necessary to protect an acre of orchard in the colder climates, the number varying in different sections. They further estimate that in big orchards a car load of oil will be the average quantity required for a ten acre orchard in one season. By the use of the heaters which are placed on the ground or on boxes the temperature can be raised from 15 to 20 degrees.

The Gold Mine Dept. Store

In some parts of the west where fine fruits are raised orchard owners have perfected a plan for electric connections with all their heaters and when the temperature falls to a certain point all of the heaters are automatically lighted.

Formerly in the big orchards wood and coal fires were used on nights when there was danger from frost or freezing. Last year in the Stanfield orchard east of Seymour wood fires were lighted several nights.

The metal heaters cost about 82 cents apiece. Mr. Fettig has one of his at his store and many people are examining it with interest. They have not been on the market generally, but it is expected that their sale will be vigorously pushed next year. The Standard Oil people have a new one patented and they expect to have it on the market throughout the country by next season.

The report that Collin Sawyer, of Anderson, son of Mrs. C. V. Sawyer, of this city, met with a fatal accident this morning was erroneous. However, the number of inquiries made regarding the reported accident indicate the popularity of Mr. Sawyer in Seymour. The mistake was due to a misunderstanding of a telephone message.

$10 CLAIM ALLOWED.

W. W. Thompson Gives Advice Regarding Street Repair.

A claim for $10 was presented at the council last night from W. W. Thornton, an Indianapolis attorney, for an opinion regarding certain phases of street repair. The board of public works is desirous of re-grading several streets and if possible have the property owners pay for the cost of the work. The city attorney, E. P. Elsner, was of the opinion that the cost of such regrading could not be assessed to the property owners unless the street was permanently improved. A. A. Davison, chairman of the board, wrote to Mr. Thornton, who is regarded as authority upon municipal laws, and his opinion was the same as that of Mr. Elsner.

He forwarded with his opinion a bill for $10, and in explanation Mr. Davison said that he had no authority to present the claim and if the councilmen did not think it should be paid from the city treasury he would settle it himself. There was no discussion regarding the payment of it which was allowed with the other claims.

The Bible class of the Presbyterian church will meet at 2:30 Saturday afternoon at Mrs. J. L. Kessler's.

Calvin Hopper, who operates a roughing machine in the hub department of the Carter Planing Mill, was painfully injured this morning. He had placed a block in the machine, and the revolving knife struck a knot throwing the block out of the machine, striking Mr. Hopper on the arm. The knife was broken and the machine was otherwise damaged. A washer on the machine was thrown from the building and struck an employee who was passing, but did not injure him.

Mr. Hopper was taken to his home, and it will be some time before he can resume his work. While his injuries are not regarded as serious they are very painful. The mill closed down because of the breaking of the machine.

A Most Thrilling Story Teaching a Great Moral

Novelized by Frederick R. Toombs from the play by Paul Armstrong.

Will start in the Daily Republican, Saturday, March 18.

When old staid theater goers go to see the same play a dozen times, and hundreds of New Yorkers have done this, then the play must be good.

When a man who gains his daily bread by reading manuscripts, reads the same story three times on his own time, just because he enjoys it, then that must be a good story.

That's the record of this marvelous play and story. Thousands have gone wild over it. You will have the most exciting time of your life reading the story. Get your start with the opening chapter next Saturday.

HOME RULE FOR IRELAND IS IN SIGHT

Special Reason For Celebrating St. Patrick's Day This Year. Redmond's Great Fight Almost Won at Last.

By JAMES A. EDGERTON.

[Copyright by American Press Association, 1911.]

AT last home rule for Ireland is in sight. It has been a long battle, dating from the days of Daniel O'Connell, but it is on the eve of being won. The last election meant two definite things—that the peers would be deprived of the veto and that an Irish parliament would again sit in Dublin.

The central figure in the fight is John body. Without him and his band of Nationalists the Asquith government could not live an hour. Neither could any other government formed in the house of commons. Redmond has the balance of power, and his foes have dubbed him "the emperor." He has used his advantage to demand but one thing—home rule.

Redmond is almost as well known and popular in America as across the seas. Part of his campaign has been conducted on this side of the water. One of his many visits occurred less than one year ago, when he spoke with several of his parliamentary associates at Buffalo. As a result of his appeal for funds at that time and earlier came a new issue in British politics. The cry of "American dollars" was heard wherever Unionist orators held forth. The Liberals and Nationalists countered rather neatly by giving out a list of Tory peers who had married American heiresses.

Despite all these assaults on Redmond's election fund the Nationalists made noteworthy gains and the Liberal coalition has one more majority than before. It is all over except passing the bills to clinch the house of lords and give Ireland her liberty. There is an especial reason for Irishmen to celebrate St. Patrick's day this year. When Mr. Redmond recently was unanimously re-elected president of the United Irish league he made a speech in which he predicted that the lords would be deprived of the veto before the coronation and without the creation of new peers. He also said that so long as the government supported the program of the abolition of the veto and the enactment of home rule the Nationalists would vote with the Liberal coalition, but the moment any deviation was shown there would be a change in the party's attitude. As any such change would mean the instant downfall of the Asquith ministry, that language is sufficiently plain. The beauty of it is that Redmond is a man of his word and has the power to enforce his demands. A new sun is rising at last over the "old sod."

John Edward Redmond was born in Dublin in 1851. His father was William Archer Redmond, himself a member of parliament. The boy was educated at Trinity college, Dublin. He became a barrister at Gray's Inn in 1880 and the following year a barrister at the Irish bar. At the age of thirty he was elected to parliament, in which he has served ever since, representing New Ross for four years, North Wexford for six and Waterford for the past twenty years. He was a follower of Parnell and defended his chief even after the divorce incident and the resulting division of the Irish party. In 1900, when the party was reunited, Redmond was placed at the head, despite the fact that he had made bitter attacks on the leaders of the other faction. His generalship in re-organizing and leading the Nationalists has made possible the present success. One of his chief services to his country was his work in organizing the home rule propaganda in England.

W. T. Stead has borne testimony to the fact that during the dark days of the Boer war Redmond was the only man who led an opposition worthy of the name. He has the caliber of a prime minister, is one of the best parliamentarians in the house of commons and is a speaker who always draws a full house.

The history of the home rule struggle shows how a righteous cause must ultimately triumph despite all the obstacles it may encounter. After the long years devoted to the cause by O'Connell, Butt and Parnell it was not till 1885 that Gladstone came into power with the avowed intention of introducing a bill creating an Irish parliament. This was defeated in the house by a majority of thirty. It was eight years later that the Gladstone home rule measure passed the commons and was vetoed by the lords. Its foes then gleefully proclaimed the cause dead. Eighteen years have passed and again the question is up. This time the cause of Erin will triumph and in its victory will dethrone the house of peers that before rejected it.

Mr. Redmond's motto in the long struggle has been to make English government of Ireland difficult and dangerous. This recalls a remark of Lord Morris at a London dinner party. He was the only Irishman present and kept a cynical silence while the others discussed the Irish difficulty. Finally, on being appealed to point blank for his opinion, he retorted:

"Well, d'ye see, when a stupid people try to govern a clever people there'll always be some difficulty in it. An' that's just the Irish difficulty."

JOHN E. REDMOND, IRISH HOME RULE CHAMPION.

IRISH HOME GOING ASSOCIATION AND ITS YOUNG FOUNDER

By MATTHEW T. CORCORAN.

[Copyright by American Press Association, 1911.]

IT is confidently expected that many thousands of Americans born in Ireland will join this year's procession of pilgrims who, under the auspices of the Irish Home Going Association of America, will revisit their native isle. From May 1 to Oct. 30 is the period set for the annual revisiting. The movement does not involve a mere excursion, but the home going of individuals and groups at any time between the dates mentioned. Last year was the occasion of the first home going. That it was remarkably successful from the point of view of the originator of the movement and his associates is proved by the report submitted by Francis J. Kilkenny of Washington, president of the association and author of the home going idea and plan.

"A Raphael faced young Irish American," wrote a correspondent two years ago, "has hit upon a plan for the delivery of his native land from the condition of industrial stagnation in which it has so long existed and its conversion into a realm of activity and prosperity. The plan amounts to an inspiration. The Irish of America are to be asked to a homecoming in the land of their birth in the summer of 1910. The invitation is to be extended particularly to those Irishmen who have accumulated wealth in this country. These men are urged to return to the Emerald Isle for the pleasure of it in the first place, but in the second place with an eye out for business opportunity."

Mr. Kilkenny, who is secretary to the controller of the nation's currency, is a young Irishman who came to this country a poor lad and worked his way up step by step to his present important post. He lived in Chicago some years before going to Washington. Mr. Kilkenny says the invitation to the home going applies to Irish-Americans in every walk of life. He said recently:

"The formation of the association resulted through the courtesy of the press in widespread interest, and correspondence from every quarter of the United States, Canada and even Australia began to be received. This was handled largely by myself and by the national secretary, Joseph D. Sullivan, outside of business hours. At least 5,000 inquiries were received. These concerned not alone the underlying features of the Irish pilgrimage, but included solicitation and suggestion from individuals and companies throughout the world having for sale songs, postcards, badges, buttons, umbrellas and even real estate. A man in Iowa suggested that each pilgrim carry with him and plant in Ireland a fruit tree."

IRELAND'S SONG OF HOPE

BY F. H. DE QUINCEY

LAND of the warrior hearts,
Land of the souls of fire,
Thy sad face pale
To the dawn unveil,
From silence bonds unchain thy lyre.
Above thee slavery's dark cloud parts,
And tyrant foes, abashed, retire!

LAND of the strong and brave,
Land of the tried and true,
Thy spreading plains
'Neath the mild spring rains
Again are shining, fresh and new,
And singing tales thy fair shores lave.
Thy hopes shall soon be ripened too!

FREE shall thy pure veins flow,
Thy dormant pulses leap,
The scalding tear
Shall disappear
From thy wan cheek and humble creep
The hydra-headed wrong which low
Plunged thy fair brow in sorrow's deep!

THY brooks and bounding streams
Grim war no more shall dye;
The call to arms,
The strife's alarms,
The flame sheets, shrouding earth and sky
Shall burst no more upon thy dreams,
But gentle slumbers seal thine eye.

FAMINE and plague no more
Upon thy loved shall feed;
The vampire maws
Of bloody laws
Shall choke of their insatiate greed,
And o'er thy rock encircled shore
The seraph Peace all blessings lead.

THE gives upon thy feet,
The throng around thy heart,
Their cankerous grasp
Shall soon unclasp,
And through the wide earth's every part
Resounding notes of triumph sweet
Shall tell the joy that free thou art!

ST. PATRICK'S BIRTH DATE IS UNKNOWN

ALTHOUGH it is well known that when the conversion of the northern countries of Europe to Christianity was systematically entered upon by the early church women exercised a remarkable influence in securing proselytes, there is, strange to say, no record of any special work of the kind done by them in Ireland. While Clotilda, the queen of the Franks, carried the faith to Clovis, and Bertha, the queen of Kent, and Gisella, the queen of Hungary, were leaders in their own countries, no Celtic woman's name is so identified. St. Patrick seems to have had the chief work, as he has the chief glory, in connection with the first religious training of the Emerald Isle.

Sent to Ireland by Pope Celestine in the early part of the fifth century, he confined his labors to no special part of the country, but visited every chieftain and province in turn. To a Welsh invader who had carried away, among other prisoners, many neophytes and had committed many atrocities in his raid St. Patrick addressed the only letter of his authorship known to be extant. This and his "Confessions" are the only authentic remains of his literary work.

Both the birth and death of St. Patrick are involved in so much uncertainty that, as is the case with so many heroes, the anniversary of either event must be fixed principally by conjecture. Some authorities give a latitude of ten years from 377 as the probable time when he was born, and opinions as to his death place the time anywhere from the year 460 to 483, thus giving him an age of from seventy-eight to much beyond a hundred years. If an authentic date cannot be fixed upon there may be some authority for the characteristically Irish assertion of James Whitcomb Riley, that—

ST. PATRICK.

It was upon St. Patrick's day,
In the middle of July,
The weather it was cold and wet,
But the day was hot and dry.

Some Irishmen held that he was born on March 8, while others contended that his birthday was on the next day, and while they contended a solon bent on peace suggested to "split the difference" by adding the two dates, and so came Patrick by his birthday, March 17.

If the legendary story of the good saint's doings is to have any credence he should be considered as the most chivalrous champion and friend of the weaker sex. As the destroyer even in but one country of that arch enemy which myth and art have so continuously associated with the fall of the race and the unhappiness of woman St. Patrick made the land of the Shamrock, as Moore tells us, so safe and glad a spot the maiden was secure from harm wherever she went:

Sir Knight, I feel not the least alarm;
No son of Erin would offer me harm,
For, though they love woman and gold in store,
Sir Knight, they love honor and virtue more.

St. Patrick's day is usually celebrated in Ireland with a fair, or "pattern day," when various ways of getting the simple peasants' money are devised by the wily tent owners, who sell "fine American gold rings" for a shilling and yell their wares with all the lustiness of Daniel O'Connell's fish-woman.

A dance on the village green or near the town pump is one of the great features of the day. Shamrocks are worn by everybody, and the little girls wear crosses made up of gayly colored ribbons on their right arms, over which is planned a shamrock, denoting their loyalty to their country and the church. Local orators deliver patriotic addresses, boys bet on the annual donkey races, priests preach long sermons on "the glorious patron saint," the police watch for revolutionary riots, and careful mothers look out for Cupid's plots, but withal there is a tradition in Ireland that more people fall in love on that day and more matches are made than on all the other holidays. But no one blames St. Patrick.

EVOLUTION IN OLD IRELAND

How the Jaunting Car Has Been Imperceptibly Evolved

Ho, ho, for the jolly jaunting car
Of old St. Patrick's island!
Don't mind the jolt, don't mind the jar,
But jaunt you many a mile and
You'll find the sport is truly noble,
Albeit not so up to date
As the nineteen 'leven automobile,
Which has another sort of gait.

ONE of the institutions of Ireland is the jaunting car. It is to the Emerald Isle what the jinrikisha is to Japan. Though the bicycle and the motorcycle and the automobile have invaded St. Patrick's domain, still the jaunting car remains the poetic symbol of transportation, and every Irishman who revisits his native land, likewise every tourist who travels thither, feels that he has not "done" the country properly until he has jaunted in a jaunting car.

The jaunting car wasn't invented. It evolved. Imperceptibly it has developed by ten stages—to wit: (1) The peat or market basket borne on the back; (2) the basket carried a la donkey; (3) the double crate slung across the donkey's back, with the boy in charge also enjoying a ride; (4) the hay or straw drag, where the shafts first come into use; (5) the drag carrying the basket of produce to market or filled with potatoes bound from the field to the storehouse; (6) the drag fitted with a box wagon bed; (7) a single wooden wheel raises the drag from the ground and makes it a vehicle; (8) two wheels appear now, with a box bed for hauling produce, the driver walking; (9) the driver finds a place to ride; (10) the jaunting car at last—seats extended back over low wheels, the passengers riding sidewise. Jump in for a jaunt!

BURIAL IN MONTANA.

Remains of the Late James Russell Taken to Billings.

Mrs. James Russell and two sons, Oren and John Russell started on their long journey to Billings, Montana this morning with the remains of their husband and father, James Russell, who died suddenly Monday night at Crothersville, where he had been visiting for several days. They will arrive home Sunday evening, and the body will be buried there. Mr. Russell was a veteran in the civil war and the funeral services at Crothersville were in charge of the G. A. R. When the body left Crothersville the box containing the coffin was covered with a large American flag. A large number of the members of Ellsworth Post accompanied the remains from the interurban station to the B. & O. depot.

A number of the relatives and friends of the family of the deceased accompanied the remains here. Among those who came were: Edward Russell of Oklahoma, who will remain at Crothersville for several days, William Russell, brother of the deceased, D. C. Hotchkiss, Thomas Collins and family, B. Thompson and family, Mrs. Isaac Warner and David Sage.

Roscoe Snedeker, who has been weighing the mail on the Southeastern lines between this city and Terre Haute, has been transferred to Indianapolis, and left for that city this morning. He expects to enter the railway mail service in a short time.
